THE GENESIS OF THE DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

In the 'Indian Review' for November 1923, there appeared an article on 'The Tanjore Palace Library' in which I drew the attention of the Government of Madras and others to the urgent need for the preparation and publication of a Descriptive Catalogue of the valuable Sanskrit Manuscripts enshrined in this Library. In December 1924, I followed this up by a detailed paper on the same subject which was read before the All India Oriental Conference held at Madras. Both these contributions attracted the notice of Lord Goschen the Head of the Province. Mr. Littlehales, the then Director of Public Instruction, took a keen and personal interest in the question and assured me of Government support and patronage if I made constructive proposals of a reasonable character.

Exactly ten years ago I made my first official visit to this library at the request of the Director of Public Instruction with reference to a scheme of a Descriptive Catalogue of the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Library.

For years previously, the Administrative Committee had been pressing on the Government the need for a Descriptive Catalogue which could be undertaken only if the Government subsidised the publication by a liberal grant.

Two reports were written by me on the scheme of a catalogue and in 1926 definite proposals were laid before Government for a triennial programme. The scheme was approved in G. O. No. Mis. 568 dated 9th April 1927 and Rs. 21845 was sanctioned. The programme was to finish the Catalogue in 5000 pages of nine volumes. During 1929-30, the last year of the triennium, it was found that though 5000 pages would be printed off before the end of March 1930 and nine volumes would also be published, yet only 5325 works would have been described as most of the Mss. were rare, some of them being single copies in the world,

It was at this juncture that His Excellency, the Viceroy Lord Irwin visited the library on the 11th December 1929. To a casual question of His Excellency whether English could be written on palm leaf, the Pandits of the library handed over to him at the end of the visit a palm leaf 400 years old in which were written—“May Your Excellency Lord Irwin’s visit be fruitful of further patronage to the library by sanctioning funds for the second triennium for completing the Catalogue.” A similar appeal on palm leaf to Her Excellency Lady Irwin evoked great enthusiasm from her and both promised to see that necessary funds would be made available. The wheels of Government moved very quickly thenceafter; special reports were again called for and a sum of Rs 21960 was sanctioned in 1930 for a further triennium. With this and with a contribution of Rs. 1600 sanctioned by the Library Administrative Committee when the Government declined to grant any further aid, the Descriptive Catalogue of the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Library has been completed in nineteen volumes. The descriptive details for the works mentioned in Volumes XVIII and XIX have had to be greatly curtailed because of the large number of works treated and the paucity of funds.

This Library is the greatest Oriental Manuscripts Library in the world, its Sanskrit collection being unique and unsurpassed by any other library. It is a fact of which South India may be legitimately proud that two of the Greatest Oriental Manuscripts Collections in the world are within our Presidency, the Tanjore Collection and that of the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras. The scheme of a Descriptive Catalogue of the Madras Library took shape in the last decades of the last century and is still in progress. In point of numbers, Tanjore compares very favourably with Madras. But the Tanjore collection has got a unique value in that it has preserved the literary works of authors spread over three-and-a-half centuries whose works are mostly in single copies. The collections in Tanjore should have begun as early as the middle of the fifteenth century about 1450 A. D.. The Telugu Nayaks who held sway over Tanjore during 1535-1675 patronised the pandits of the land and held courts to honour them. Valuable collections of important works were carefully preserved in the archives of their courts, the Manuscripts being mainly on palm leaf. These Nayak rulers were not only military chiefs but possessed great artistic and scholarly instincts besides a few of them being themselves authors of no mean repute. The Nayak rulers were followed by the famous Mahratha kings who ruled Tanjore from 1676-1855 when the last of the Mahratha Kings died and the principality of Tanjore became a full British possession. The change of rule from the Nayaks to the Mahrathas did not, as is usual with alien invasions, produce any serious unsettlement in the existing social and other conditions of the people of the land. We know that military successes have always meant a full stop for a temporary period at any rate of all lines of progress, particularly in belles lettres, art and other non-political activities of the vanquished. But fortunately, this does not seem to have been the case at any rate as far as Tanjore was concerned. The Mahratha rulers seem to have been greater and more enthusiastic patrons of Literature and Art than their predecessors. Scholars and poets, artists and painters—all enjoyed increasing patronage at their hands. Almost the last of them, the great Maharaja Serfoji (1800-1832) did the greatest and most lasting service not only to his race but to all India when he embarked on a gigantic plan for increasing the usefulness of the Library. We are told that whilst on a pilgrimage to Benares, he bought every valuable manuscript that was for sale and ordered a host of pandits to faircopy the others that were too precious and could not be bought. Thus the largest single collection added to the Library was during his time and under his direct fostering care. As a fitting tribute to the great patron of learning, the library has been named by the Administrative Committee that took charge of it in 1918 as the 'Mahārāja Serfoji Sarasvatī Mahāl Library Tanjore'. It is hoped that the Descriptive Catalogue now issued in nineteen volumes will not only preserve the valuable treasures of this library for posterity but will also inspire sufficient confidence in the public to induce them to deposit their individual collections of manuscripts in the library as thereby, their preservation and usefulness to the scholar-world will be amply assured. A short account of the various collections that have now been catalogued will be found under "General Introduction."

IV

HISTORY OF SANSKRIT LITERATURE

FROM 1500 A. D. TO 1850 A. D.

(based on the Manuscripts available in the Tanjore Palace Library).

It is well-known that all the existing histories of Sanskrit Literature generally stop with 1200 A. D. with but a few references to works or authors of a later period. Macdonell's History of Sanskrit Literature deals elaborately with Vedic Literature and Epic Literature whilst its treatment of Classical Sanskrit Literature is neither detailed nor beyond 1000 A. D.. Dr. Keith's History of Sanskrit Literature deals more systematically with the authors and works of Classical Literature but it comes down to only 1200 A. D., though here and there there are references to a few individual authors and works, ranging from 1200 A. D. to 1500 A. D.

With the Muhammadan invasions and the consequent unsettled state of the country politically, Classical Sanskrit Literature seems to have languished principally in North and Middle India for want of royal patronage and encouragement. South India, which had been comparatively free from such disturbing influences up till very recent times, seems to have enjoyed complete peace under the Hindu Sovereigns whether they ruled large kingdoms or petty principalities. These Hindu Potentates continued to patronise the learned arts and encouraged the concourse of learned scholars in their assemblies and courts.

Among such centres of learning in the South, the Vijayanagar Empire and its dependencies in the southern-most parts like Tanjore, Mysore, Vellore, Madura etc. continued to foster Sanskrit Learning even as did the ancient kings in pre-Muhammadan days. Of the rulers at Vijayanagar, Kṛṣṇa Deva Rāya (1509-1529 A. D.) was the greatest scholar, in whose court learned pandits and scholars daily met and discoursed. On his death, the principality of Tanjore was taken possession of by the Nāyaka Rulers who ruled Tanjore from 1535 to 1678 A. D. From the Nāyaks the Mahrathas captured Tanjore and ruled it from A. D. 1676 to A. D. 1855 when the British annexed it.

Thus for a period of about 350 years from A. D. 1500 to A. D. 1850, the Tanjore Kingdom enjoyed complete peace and prosperity at the hands of its Nāyak and Mahratha rulers who encouraged learning and the learned arts so very ungrudgingly and with real love and enthusiasm that within this short span of about 350 years we find that more than a hundred and twentyfive authors poured forth their first-rate literary output in more than five hundred works of permanent value besides their contribution to the development of the Fine Arts, like Music, Painting etc etc.

The greatest of these Nāyak and Mahratha rulers of Tanjore is undoubtedly Mahārāja Serfoji (1800-1832). He is the founder of the world famous Tanjore Maharaja Serfoji Sarasvati Mahāl Library, which, in respect of number and quality of the Sanskrit Manuscripts it enshrines is pre-eminently the foremost Sanskrit Manuscript Library in the world *.

Under the direction of the Government of Madras and with grant-in-aid sanctioned by them, the Administrative Committee of the Tanjore Palace Library have just finished publishing a catalogue in nineteen volumes containing descriptive notices of 24432 Sanskrit manuscripts. As the Editor of this Catalogue, I was very much struck with the rich and varied character of the manuscript treasure enshrined in this Library. The Descriptive Catalogue has been issued under various subject-headings, beginning from Vedic Literature. A table giving a bird's-eye-view of the volumes and their contents is given under Section II. It will be seen that the authors and works have been treated historically from the point of view of the development of each branch of Sanskrit Literature.

From the manuscripts described in the above volumes, it has been possible to reconstruct a running history of the development of Sanskrit Literature in the South, under the aegis of the Nāyak and Mahratha rulers of a single kingdom like the Tanjore Principality, for an unbroken period of 350 years from 1500 A. D.

* (For a historical account of the origin and development of the Library see "General Introduction").

to A. D. 1850. In the following pages, we give a short account of the notable authors, who flourished during this period, in their chronological order, giving a brief statement of their more celebrated works with the catalogue number enclosed in brackets (works, in respect of which no numbers are given, are easily traceable in the Adyar or Madras Oriental Manuscript Libraries). The contents of these works are not touched upon as these can be gathered from their descriptions in the Descriptive Catalogue. In presenting this History of Sanskrit Literature for this period, my aim is to invite the attention of scholars and learned institutions to the rich material lying embedded in the manuscript-material available in the great Oriental Manuscript Libraries in India and abroad. A systematic classification and study of these should easily lead to the reconstruction of the History of Sanskrit Literature, from 1200 A. D. onwards, which, in point of richness of content, not to speak of the variety of subjects dealt with, should be even more fascinating than the period before 1200 A. D.

The Nāyak kings ruled Tanjore from A. D. 1535 to A. D. 1678. The Mahrāthas ruled Tanjore from A. D. 1676 to A. D. 1855. We give below the names of the rulers with the period of their rule

For purposes of comparative chronological study we have divided the period A. D. 1500 to A. D. 1850 into seven subperiods of fifty years each. The assignment of an author to a period is rather intended to indicate more specifically the group to which he belongs, than to serve as an upper or lower limit for him or his literary activity.

Śrīnivāsa Dīkṣita or Śrīnivāsādhvari was born of Bhavaswāmi Bhaṭṭa fourth in descent from the Bhāṣyakāra Bhavaswāmi. His genealogy is given in full in the introduction to his drama Bhāvanāpuruṣottama (No. 4427). We learn that he was the court poet of the Cola king Sri Sūrappa Nāyak of Cenji and that his native village was Sūra Samudra in Toḍḍiramaṇḍala. Ratnaketa Dīkṣita was the honorific title conferred upon him by his Royal Patron, as soon as he heard his exquisite description of the evening twilight. Since then, he has been more familiarly known as Ratnaketa Dīkṣita or Ratnaketa Śrīnivāsa Dīkṣita. Ratnaketa and Appaya Dīkṣita were direct contemporaries. It would appear that not much love was lost between them. Virarāghava Kavi refers to them as contemporaries in the following verse—

स रत्नकेटकीक्षितोऽपि येन वादनिर्जितः

निवारितः पराम्बया विवादकेलिदीक्षितः ।

सुतामदात्सुमङ्गलाममा च पूर्णिमाकृता

बुधेन येन सर्वमङ्गलाप्रसादवैभवात् ॥

The allusion here is to the following incident.

Appaya who was a staunch Devi worshipper, as usual worshipped his इष्टदेवता on a Friday afternoon; and after partaking of the prasādas not excluding Madhu, a favourite dish of the Devi, was out walking. It would appear that Ratnakeṭa who knew of Appaya Dikṣita's Śakti worship was waiting for an opportunity to expose the seemingly rotten side of the Śakti cult. So he accosted Appaya and asked of him with becoming courtsey the tithi for the Day. Of course, Appaya with a nonchalant gesture, characteristic of his state, just flung the reply that it was Paurṇimā while in fact it was Amāvāsyā. The wily controversialist Ratnakeṭa had heard exactly what he wanted and so retired. Appaya awoke to his senses after he had walked on for a while and then remembered and recognised the serious mistake he had committed. With a terrific anger, enkindled on account of his righteous indignation at the way in which he had been tricked, came back to his house once again, sat in worship before his Goddess and relentlessly rebuked her for having deluded and made him an object of ridicule. We are credibly informed that the Goddess vouchsafed unto him final victory for his convictions and as a proof whereof, flung her ear-ornament far into the eastern quarter of the sky where it shone with the redoubled brilliance of the Rising Moon of the Pūrṇima Day. Struck by that sudden effulgence, Ratnakeṭa and his friends soon understood the significance of the miracle especially when they saw Appayya facing Eastwards eulogise the Devi in soul-stirring language. Ratnakeṭa Dikṣita has written many works of outstanding merit. We have a recital of these in the commentary written by बालयज्ञवेदेधर on the Rukmiṇiparināya of Rājacūḍāmaṇi Dikṣita, the renowned son of Ratnakeṭa Dikṣita. The archæological reports inform us that Ratnakēṣa was patronised by Acyutappa and Raghunātha Nāyaks of Tanjore. His other works are Bhaṭṭoji Dīkṣita, the great Vaiyākaraṇa acclaims himself as a direct disciple of Appaya Dīkṣita.

The southern recension of the meeting of Bhaṭṭoji and Appaya runs as follows. Bhaṭṭoji was bound for the south to visit the great shrine of Rāmeśvara. Whilst at Cidambaram, Bhaṭṭoji happened to attend a class in Vyākaraṇa held by Appaya Dīkṣita. It is said that during the course of his lecture, Appaya was explaining to his pupils some of the knotty points in Bhaṭṭoji's works with his running commentary thereon, sometimes agreeing with Bhaṭṭoji's view and at other times criticising him. Bhaṭṭoji, without disclosing his identity, seems to have volunteered certain explanations by way of substantiating some of his own conclusions. Whilst this wordy combat was progressing Appaya seems to have exclaimed with an ironical sneer, whether he was the great Bhaṭṭoji himself, more prepared for the negative reply. To Appaya's surprise, Bhaṭṭoji bowed his head and said that he was Bhaṭṭoji himself. Bhaṭṭoji was so much struck with Appaya Dīkṣita's great mastery over the Pūrva and the Uttara Mīmāṃsa Śāstras that he requested Appaya to condescend to initiate him in those. Whereupon, local tradition hath it that Appaya asked Bhaṭṭoji to proceed first to Rāmeśvaram and there to remove his moustaches etc. as unbecoming of an orthodox brahmin and said that on his return journey, Appaya would await him with pleasure to teach him what he knew. And in due course Appaya taught Bhaṭṭoji the two Mīmāṃsas.

The Northern recension of this incident tells us that Appaya Dīkṣita met Bhaṭṭoji during the former's visit to Benares.

Whichever recension is relied upon, it is quite clear that these two great Dīkṣitars did meet, were contemporaries and that Bhaṭṭoji was considerably younger to Appaya Dīkṣita.

Diṇḍimasārvabhauma states that Annāsāstri vanquished Kāmadeva in a controversy in the court of Veṅkaṭapati who gave him a golden palanquin and the village called Brakaram. Annāsāstri had three sons, of whom the eldest Viśvanāthāryadīkṣita was clever in commenting on the Siddhānjana and other works of Kṛṣṇānandayatindra. The second son was Vinateyasūri. and begot children in the evening of his life owing to the blessings of a Muhamaden Fakir by name Shāh-Sherif. Consequently he termed his first son with the former part of his name Shah and Ji being the suffix showing reverence, and his second son as Sherif.

But the Sanskrit poets are gifted with the power of giving an Indian colour to the foreign terms and began to change the pronunciation as Śāhājī and Śarabhājī. So we should not be confounded that the multifarious terms—as Shāhājī, Śāhaji, Sahaji meant different personages.

GENERAL INTRODUCTION TO THE "COLLECTIONS" IN THE LIBRARY.

The Tanjore Mahārāja Serfoji's Sarasvatī Mahāl Library which is described by Dr. Burnell "to be perhaps the largest and most important in the world" and which Dr. Bühler says "contains a great many useful and a number of very rare or nearly unique books many of which are quite unknown or procurable only with great trouble and expense" was till recently the private property of the Rājas of Tanjore.

The earliest systematic beginnings of the Library must have been about the end of the 16th century when Tanjore was under the rule of Telugu Nāyaks who collected Sanskrit Manuscripts written in Telugu character. In the 18th century the Mahrāṭhas conquered the country and since that date the Library has been increasing. By far the greater portion of the collection was made by Serfoji during a visit to Benares during 1820—1830. Śivāji his successor added a few. There has practically been no addition of any value till very recent times. A good number of Sanskrit manuscripts including rare and valuable manuscripts representing the collection of generations of a family of scholars, known as the "Jambunātha Bhaṭṭa Landagai Collection" was added to the Library in 1921.

In 1922, the Library received other valuable collections of rare interest, known as the "Kāgalkar" and the "Pataṅga Avadhūta" collections. The former is about 160 and the latter, about 100 years old. The collection made by the Kāgalkar Family of learned Sanskrit Scholars of Tanjore especially versed in Sanskrit Grammar (व्याकरणम्) contains the autograph copies made by some of them of the works composed by themselves and others. Its prominent feature is the collection of works on Sanskrit Grammar. The collection made by Pataṅgāvadhūta whose descendants settled at Tiruvadamardūr in Tanjore District contains a large number of works on Vedānta (वेदान्तः) and Bhakti (भक्तिः). Both these collections comprise several Manuscripts which do not already exist in this Library.

The attention of the Government of India and through it of the Government of Madras was directed in 1868 to the importance of the examination, purchase or transcription of Sanskrit manuscripts in Indian Libraries and the framing of printed lists or catalogues of the same. (Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Public), No. 4338-48, dated Simla, 3rd November 1868).

In respect of magnitude as well as the range of subjects dealt with, not to speak of the diversity of languages employed the Tanjore Library is probably second to none among Oriental Libraries in India.

In December of the same year, the Government of Madras asked Mr. Pickford, Professor of Sanskrit, to carry out the instructions of the Government of India. He commenced to catalogue the manuscripts at Tanjore; but he fell seriously ill and had to return to Europe in March 1870 and never came back to India. It is not known how much he had done as his unfinished catalogues could not be found. (Letter from the Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, 22nd May 1876, and Letter No. 1560, dated Madras, 7th June 1876, from the Director of Public Instruction, Madras to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras).

Thereupon Dr. Burnell, District and Sessions Judge, was appointed in G. O. No. 71, dated 16th March 1871, to catalogue the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Library at Tanjore. That learned Scholar devoted a great deal of research and labour to the task and his catalogue which he styled "A Classified Index to the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Palace at Tanjore," was published in three parts between 1878 and 1880 in London. This is now the chief key to the huge Sanskrit collection in this Library. But unfortunately a great many manuscripts, above 4,000, seem to have been omitted and his catalogue cannot be said to be complete.

During the course of his preparation of the catalogue Dr. Burnell wrote to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras from Bangalore on 6th August 1873 as follows:—

"It may perhaps be asked if the Library is worth the labour spent on it. I can answer unhesitatingly that it is. It is now a recognised fact that nearly all Sanskrit works of importance exist in different recensions. The Tanjore Library is unrivalled in this respect; it contains several good manuscripts of all the most important ones known as yet, including a few that are new..... The Tanjore Library, however, contains additional manuscripts of most of the works which I had discovered elsewhere, and this is a matter of great importance.

I believe that this Library must sooner or later, escheat to the Government. The preparation of this catalogue will therefore protect property of enormous value. Sanskrit Manuscripts have long been very dear and the cost of making proper transcripts is now very heavy. As far as I can judge, it would not be possible to form a Collection like that at Tanjore at a less cost than £50,000 but many manuscripts are unquestionably unique."

The Tanjore Mahārāja Serfoji's Sarasvatī Mahāl library is now a public library in the full sense of that term, the Government of Madras, through the treasurer of Charitable Endowments, being responsible for its administration. The collection belonged to the reigning princes of Tanjore—the Mahrāṭha Mahārājas. When the last of them died leaving no direct male heir and after the death of the last surviving Rāṇi this collection together with the other properties formed the subject of litigation in civil courts. There was a rumour a few years ago that the collection had attracted the attention of some wealthy patrons of learning from Overseas. And it would appear that arrangements were very nearly ready to sell the whole collection outright at an assessed value, when public attention was focussed on certain remarks of Dr. Burnell to the effect that "it would not be possible to form a collection like that at Tanjore at a less cost than £50,000". The parties concerned had perforce to wake up and the deal was not immediately concluded. The public of Tanjore also began to interest themselves in the affair adequately. It was rightly considered as a question of national pride. The parties in O. S. No. 26 of 1912 on the file of the Subordinate Judge of Tanjore agreed that it was eminently fit that the Library should be preserved and maintained as a Public Library in trust for the public and removed the Library and one lakh of rupees to provide for its up-keep, from the subject-matter of the suit. The Government of Madras in G. O. No. 1306 Home (Education), dated 5th October 1918, accordingly took possession of the same under the Charitable Endowments Act and have framed a scheme for the management of the same.

Since the Library became a Public Trust there has been a marked improvement in the reception accorded to it by the public. Various liberal and generous-minded benefactors have come forward with magnanimous offers. The Library has been enriched with several very fine collections of manuscripts, every one of them rare, valuable and very interesting. The Kagalkar collection, Jabmunātha Bhaṭṭ Lāṇḍagai collection and the Pataṅga Avadhūta collection—all these three alone number 2181 manuscripts. Besides these, the Tyāgarāja Svāmi collection which alone contains more than 1000 manuscripts; then the minor collections—the Subrahmanya Śāstri collection, Subrahmanya Rao collection, Rāmacandra Gaṇapat collection, Nilakanṭha Śāstri collection, Devaśāṅkara Tāwker collection, Gopālakṛṣṇa Davalekar collection, and Kṛṣṇāji Metha collection—all are of great and paramount importance.

The manuscripts are either on palm leaf or on paper. They are of very different value and come from very different sources. A large collection of these are recent Nāgarī copies of manuscripts in South Indian characters and are at least a century old.

These manuscripts are in more than eleven distinct alphabets being from all parts of India. On the whole, one may easily say that the total number of manuscripts now in this Library is likely to exceed 30,000.

A large number of original records belonging to the last reigning house of Tanjore which will be of very great importance for reconstructing the political and social history of the Mahrāṭha rule in Southern India has recently been transferred to the care of this Library from the Civil Court by order of the Judge.

Besides these manuscripts there are also a number of books and Manuscripts in almost all the Indian and European languages and on almost all branches of human knowledge. Special mention may here be made of the books and manuscripts in Telugu, Tamil, Mahrāṭhi and English on account of their number and importance.

Dr. Burnell issued, what he modestly styled, "A classified Index to the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Palace at Tanjore," between 1878 and 1880. Between 1880 and 1918 for very nearly forty years, the Library has been the victim of many an outrage. Those who were in possession gave out on loan very many manuscripts which were never returned. And many more somehow or other, found themselves into Libraries other than at Tanjore. Dr. Burnell's Catalogue is very useful to us to trace out lost manuscripts which are never likely to come back to us. Our losses are probably far more, for even Dr. Burnell's admirable catalogue was by no means a complete catalogue of all that existed. For, where he mentions a single work in a bundle, we are able today to trace two or more works in the same bundle.

The Committee appointed by the Government of Madras took charge early in 1919. Since then, they have been busily pushing forward the work of revising and preparing a fresh catalogue of all the works now in the Library according to the latest scientific methods. Each work is described in detail in a card-index form which contains all the necessary particulars.

In 1920 a Catalogue of printed books in French, Latin, Italian, and Greek was published. In 1926 three volumes of a Catalogue of Tamil Manuscripts in the Library were published. From the year 1924 a Catalogue of Mahrāṭhi Mss. and books of this Library was being prepared; the first two Volumes have been published recently. These are now on sale and can be had from the Secretary of the Library. In 1933, the Andhra University published a Descriptive Catalogue of the Telugu Mss. in the Library.

The Administrative Committee of the Library approached the Government of Madras, year after year with the request for a special grant to enable them to prepare and publish a Descriptive Catalogue of the Sanskrit Mss. in the Library. With grant-in-aid from the Government of Madras, all the Sanskrit Manuscripts have now been described in the Nineteen Volumes of the Descriptive Catalogue recently published under the editorship of Vidyāsagara Prof. P. P. S. Śāstri of the Presidency College, Madras.

VII

OUR OBLIGATIONS.

When we started our work in January 1927, we little expected that the work of editing the Descriptive Catalogue will involve so much time or so much worry on our part. Thanks to the enthusiastic co-operation which we uniformly received from the members of the special staff and those belonging to the permanent staff of the library, the academic side of the work has indeed been a pleasure. On the other hand, the work of finding the necessary funds for the financing of the publication of the catalogue in a suitable and adequate manner, satisfying the needs of the scholar-world, did involve a little too much of worry, certainly incommensurate with the greatness of the task involved and the character of the work undertaken, as the editing was purely a labour of love undertaken for the spreading of knowledge. However, whatever might have been the difficulties encountered with due to official exigencies etc., we are glad to lay down the task with satisfaction of having done our Duty.

In accomplishing our task, we desire to record with feelings of real gratitude the laborious and ungrudging assistance rendered to us by Pandit N. Vaidyanātha Śāstri, not only during the period of his membership of the special staff but also for a long period since then, till the very day of our laying down the task. To Rao Saheb T. Sāmbamūrthi Rao, the old but enthusiastic Honorary Secretary of the Library, words cannot adequately convey the gratitude the world of scholars owe. His one and only aim in Life has been the preservation of the treasures of the Library. We shall indeed be highly obliged if he feels that we too have co-operated with him, in however humble a manner, in his noble task.

Gurubhaktasikhāmaṇi, Śāstraprasārabhūgaṇa T. K. Bāla-subrahmaṇya Iyer, the Managing Director of the Śrī Vāṇī Vilās Press Srirangam (already famous for its valuable publications in the cause of Sanskrit Literature) deserves special thanks not only for the attractive manner in which he has brought out all the Nineteen Volumes but also for the great financial assistance he has rendered the Government and the public, by agreeing to accept half the standard rates for printing charges, as without such cooperation from him the work of the Catalogue would not have been finished so well or so fully.

This Descriptive Catalogue owes its inception to the "Classical Bias" of Mr. R. Littlehales, M. A., C. I. E., the Director of Public Instruction, Madras who in 1927 embarked me on this great enterprise with his characteristic enthusiasm and encouragement. It must indeed be a great satisfaction to him, as it is to me that he is yet with us, though as Vice-Chancellor of the University of Madras, to witness its completion.

PREFACE TO THE CONTENTS

OF VOL. XIX.

Vol. XIX consists of two parts. The first part notices 7621 manuscripts in brief tabular form only owing to want of funds. The inability of Government to place further funds at the disposal of the Administrative Committee rendered it necessary to cut out all detailed descriptive notices for the present. It is hoped that when the Library is able to set apart sufficient funds for the purpose, a detailed account of the 7621 Manuscripts now tabulated will be made available to the public.

These 7621 Manuscripts are classified under the following sections.

I	Mantras	15468—17748
II	Stotras	19093—23274
III	Supplement to } Vols. I to XIX }	23481—24432

I. MANTRAS.

The Mantra section of this Library is very interesting as the works noticed are very rare and not easily available elsewhere. These are tabulated under the following divisions in accordance with the well-known dictum. “ आदित्यमर्षिकां विष्णुं गणनाथं महे- श्वरम् ”

ग्रहचराः	15468—15537	गणपतिपराः	16987—17085
देवीपराः	15538—16501	शिवपराः	17086—17432
विष्णुपराः	16502—16986	नानाविधाः	17433—17748

II. STOTRAS.

Many of the Stotras noticed are already available in print in the various collections of Stotras as Br̥hatstotraratnākara (Bombay), Br̥hatstotrakamalākara (Madras), Stotraratnākara Vāvillā Press, Madras. The Śrī Vānī Vilās Press, Śrīraṅgam propose to bring out a collection of Stotras, containing the more important ones which have been omitted in the above publications. The Stotras are tabulated as follows—

नवमहस्तोत्राणि	19093—19414	गणपतिस्तोत्राणि	21980—22088
देवीस्तोत्राणि	19415—20698	शिवस्तोत्राणि	22089—23140
विष्णुस्तोत्राणि	20699—21979	नानाविधस्तोत्राणि	23141—23274

III. SUPPLEMENT TO VOLS. I—XIX.

In this section, some of the additions to the Library since the Descriptive Catalogue was begun as well as the omissions detected are described in tabular form. Detailed Notices are not appended as these represent mostly additional copies of Manuscripts already noticed. Subhāsitas which had been omitted under 'Kāvya' are noticed here.

The Indices to Volumes I-XIX have been prepared as carefully as may be practicable. Owing to want of facilities for checking all the entries carefully, it may be that a few errors might have crept in, here and there, particularly in the numeral figures. In cases of doubt, the subject-war indices appended to the previous Volumes may be relied on to give more accurate information.

The second part of Vol. XIX contains indices of Scribes, of Owners of Manuscripts, Dated Manuscripts, Authors and works noticed in Vols. I to XIX of the Descriptive Catalogue. A detailed introduction to Vols. I to XIX, calling attention to several noteworthy authors and works is prefixed to this Volume.
